

SPECTATOR CODE OF CONDUCT

Players, coaches, parents, and visitors will conduct themselves at all times in a manner consistent with the mission statement of Texas Kingdom Christian Sports Association:

To provide witness of Jesus Christ by offering children an opportunity to learn and play basketball with their friends in a Christian sports ministry environment.

Specifically:

- All adults and children will practice good sportsmanship,
- Players will wear appropriate basketball attire during games, including their team jersey,
- Inappropriate language will not be used,
- Referees and scorekeepers will not be verbally abused or otherwise disparaged,
- Coaches and parents will strive to create and maintain a positive, uplifting environment,
- Parents will ensure their children (players) appropriately understand these expectations.
